Dear Sir/Madam:

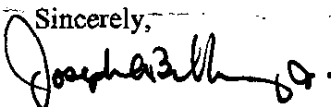

A copy of our UBR application is attached, showing the check amount was for $150.00, but the written amount was in error only written for one hundred dollars. The check was dated 3/20/04 and cleared the bank on 4/06/04 (copy of canceled check enclosed also). So our report was filed timely. We never received any other information about the corporation until the notice of dissolution was received. We then checked our records, found we had paid it, but the error of the $50 came to light; we then called your office, and was advised to send this letter of explanation.

We understand your office has records of sending correspondence out, but we never received anything, until it was too late.

A check for $50 is enclosed, and we understand this will re-activate our corporate status. Please advise if any additional information is needed.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Joseph Brandenburg
President
