ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
J.P. ENTERPRISES OF CENTRAL FLORIDA, INC.

The undersigned incorporator, in order to form a corporation for the purposes hereinafter stated under and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 607, Florida Statutes, do hereby certify as follows:

Article I
Name

The name of the corporation is J.P. ENTERPRISES OF CENTRAL FLORIDA, INC. (hereinafter the "Corporation").

Article II
Principal Office

The principal place of business and mailing address of the corporation is 1004 W Street, Tampa, Florida 33503.

Article III
Purpose

The Corporation is organized to engage in any lawful activity for which a corporation may be organized under Chapter 607, Florida Statutes.

Article IV
Resident Agent

The name and address of the Corporation's Florida registered agent is:

Marco T. Gomez
1004 W Street
Tampa, Florida 33503

Article V
Shares

The Corporation shall have the authority to issue one hundred (100) shares of common stock with a par value of $1.00 per share. No shares of stock may be issued for less than par value. Each outstanding share of stock is entitled to one (1) vote, and all outstanding shares have equal voting rights in all respects. The holders of the outstanding shares of stock shall be entitled to receive, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, dividends payable either in cash, property, or shares of the capital of the Corporation.

Article VI Preemptive Rights

Every shareholder, upon the sale for cash of any new stock of the Corporation, shall have the right to purchase his pro rata share thereof (as nearly as may be done without the issuance of fractional shares) at the price at which it is offered to others.

Article VII Cumulative Voting

At each election for directors, every shareholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to cast as many votes as the number of Directors being elected multiplied by the number of voting shares. Such votes may be cast for one candidate or distributed among candidates.

Article VIII Directors

The governing body of the Corporation is styled as the Board of Directors. The number of directors of the Corporation, the qualifications of directors, the time and place of director elections, and the term of office of each director shall be such as from time to time shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the by-laws of the Corporation. Election of Directors need not be by ballot unless the by-laws so provide. The Board of Directors shall have the power without assent or vote of the stockholders to make, alter, amend, change, add to, or repeal the by-laws of the Corporation as provided in the by-laws of the Corporation; to fix and vary the amount to be reserved for any proper purpose; to authorize and cause to be executed mortgages and liens upon all or any part of the property of the Corporation; to determine the use and disposition of any surplus or net profits; and to fix the times for the declaration and payment of dividends. Where not prohibited by law, directors may participate in meetings of the Board of Directors by means of telephone conferences, and the directors may take action by written consent. No by-law shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if such by-law had not been made.

The directors may, in their discretion, submit any contract or act for approval or ratification at any annual meeting of the stockholders or at any meeting of the stockholders called for the purpose of considering such act or contract, and any such contract or act that shall be approved or be ratified by a majority vote of the stock of the Corporation which is represented in person or by proxy at such meeting and entitled to vote thereat (provided that a lawful quorum of stockholders be there represented in person or by proxy). No contract or act or other transaction of the Corporation shall be affected in any way or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors of the Corporation have a pecuniary or other interest in, for any reason, in such contract, act, or transaction. Any directors, individually, or any firm of which any director may be a member, may be a party to, or may be pecuniarily interested in, any contract or transaction of the Corporation, provided that the fact that he or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors or such members thereof as shall be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which action upon such contract or transaction shall be taken.

Article IX Director Liability

The personal liability of the directors and officers of the Corporation is hereby eliminated to the fullest extent permitted by Chapter 607, Florida Statutes, as the same may be amended and supplemented. The Corporation shall indemnify any director or officer made a party to any action, suit, or proceeding by or on behalf of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of his being or having been a director or an officer of the Corporation, or a director or officer of any other corporation which position he held at the request of the Corporation, against all reasonable expenses, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and court costs, except in relation to matters which allege malfeasance in the discharge of his duties to the Corporation.

The Corporation shall indemnify any director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation for all acts, and under all circumstances permitted under Florida Law. Upon determination by the Board of Directors, the Corporation shall provide insurance against loss to the Corporation for such indemnification as provided by law.

No director shall be liable or responsible for action undertaken by the Board of Directors acting under the provisions or in the manner authorized by these Articles of Incorporation or the by-laws of the Corporation, nor for action taken by the Board of Directors in reliance on reasonable grounds or probable cause for believing that the Board of Directors is acting under the provisions or in the manner authorized by these Articles of Incorporation or the by-laws. The defense of any legal, equitable, or other action taken by the Board of Directors shall be conducted by counsel for the Corporation, unless the action, suit, or proceeding is brought by or on behalf of the Corporation. In the event of a judgment or decree being rendered against any director, the Corporation shall indemnify the director in the manner set forth above. This Article shall not apply to acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct, fraud, or a knowing violation of the laws or acts involving an intentional distribution in violation of Florida Law.

Article X Initial Officers

The names, addresses and titles of the initial officers of the corporation are:

Marco T. Gomez
1004 W Street
Tampa, Florida 33503

President, Secretary & Treasurer

Joseph F. Palma Vice President
1004 W Street
