To whom it may concern:

I called to report a mistake regarding the secretary listed for our corporation, and was informed that we did not file our annual report for 2004.

We had desolved one company and registered this company, and just in the last three months finally got the information to appear correct on your web site with the exception of the secretary still being incorrect. This has been a very trying experience since we can never get the same person we talked to for information twice. We had forms sent to us that were wrong on two occasions.

I informed the person we spoke with on July 20, 2004 that we did not receive the 2004 Annual report, she said it was mailed in post card form. We are use to receiving the annual reports as befor, and do not recall receiving any postcard. She helped me down load this report that I am encloseing with the correction, and the $150 fee. I was shocked to find out that it could cost $400, and she said that I should write this letter explaining the mishaps.

I hope you can help me with this matter, and give me your name and contact number so I know who has handeled this.

Very truly,

Terence P. Fahlman
