To Whom It May Concern:

Attached is an application for reinstatement for the above client. A reinstatement has been requested because the first year the client was required to file an annual report the notice to file went to the wrong address and the client was not alerted. This oversight went unnoticed until the fall of 2005 when the client tried to correct the situation by completing and filing the reinstatement application with the $300.00 fee for 2004 & 2005. The filing was not accepted because the filing fee check was miscoded as being $150.00 instead of $300.00. Upon receiving the notice of discrepancy in payment from your office our client has been looking through his records to verify the check was deposited and in the amount of $300.00. Recently we called and spoke with Michelle, the supervisor for the division of reinstatement and was told that the system does show receiving payment for $300.00 and to resubmit this application.

The deadline to file the 2006 annual report passed while trying to clear up this matter and so enclosed is a check for $150.00 as instructed by Michelle to be applied to the 2006 annual report.

We appreciate your attention in reinstating the corporation. If you have any questions or need further information please contact my office at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Laura J. Wood
