Dear Sir or Madam:

I am resubmitting my Corporation's annual report as per our conversation because I had failed to complete Box #4 on my original annual report. I received a letter from your office, which I am enclosing a copy of, that included a copy of the annual report and I was supposed to mail it with the information that was missing. I filled out Box #4, and also did a change of officers and mailed it out about two weeks ago. However, I still have not seen any changes take effect so I called your office and a gentlemen there suggested I resubmit the annual report because it possibly got misplaced and it would expediate the process if I sent it again.

I hope this resolves the issue and if you have any further questions please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jose Costilla
President
