RE: Annual Report Fee for The Business of Research, Inc.

Dear Secretary Browning:

11 PAY!!
I have been trying to my company's Annual Report Fee of $150.00 for the past two months. First attempts were several times a day on line with numerous messages that the system was down or busy, calls to help line only to be lectured about paying the fee before April of the year and finally by Federal Express shipping with my check #1252. I now receive a letter dated May 16, 2007 on June 19, 2007 stating that because I did not sign the enclosed form I would be charged a $400.00 penalty fee. This is absolutely ludicrous. The State of Florida has had The Business of Research's check for $150.00 since the first of May with proof of the many attempts I made online to pay the bill with copies of all the busy and off line messages. This seems to be comedy of unfortunate circumstances. I am a VERY small business and have made every attempt to pay this on time!

My original check is enclosed, the annual report SIGNED (a formality once you have my check) and the correspondence from the State of Florida. Please accept my annual report fee of $150.00 and may we proceed until I again pay in 2008! Hopefully, this situation will not occur in 2008 as I will begin my attempts to pay in JANUARY.

Thank you for your intervention on my behalf and any updates that you may have on this situation.

Kind regards,

Lee Ann Grimes RN BA
