A graph is plotted on a set of horizontal lines. The graph consists of a single, smooth, downward-sloping curve. The curve starts at a high point on the left side of the page and ends at a lower point on the right side, passing through the middle of the page. The curve is concave up, meaning it bends downwards more sharply as it moves to the right.

The date of each amendment(s) adoption: _____, if other than the date this document was signed.

Effective date if applicable: _____
