Sorry for the delay in our response.

Our records are showing that the report was accessed on 02/03/2004 but not completed.

Since the May 1 deadline has passed you will need to download the report and mail it in with payment. You can attach a letter explaining that you did try to file the report on line before the deadline, which will excuse the late fee but please do this as soon as possible.

To download the report go to www.sunbiz.org and select "Click here to download your 2004 Annual Report".

The only provision we have which would allow you to still file online without the late fee is if prior notice was not received. Not knowing your situation I have reset your filing so that you may re-access your report online. If prior notice was not received you will need to check the appropriate box under your entity name indicating so.

Thanks,

Lee
