Re: Annual Report Renewal for 2005

To whom it may concern,

I am submitting my annual report renewal today, because I never received the form to either download by computer or request the form by mail from my previous accountant, who's address was on the initial registration of my corporation: Con Design Corp.

I went to another person to have my taxes done today, and he asked if I had filed my annual report, and I said I did not receive any notification or a request for a check for the $150.00 from my previous accountant. I am now changing the address for all of the paperwork and records to reflect my home address, with this renewal. I made several phone calls, for the past two or three months and never was able to reach my previous accountant. Because of this mix up, I am asking your office to waive the penalty of $400.00 for filing the annual report, and accept the payment along with the corrections, on the enclosed 2005 annual report renewal form.

Sincerely,

Oscar M. Uribe, President
