It will be virtually impossible to come up with the cash to pay the $400.00 penalties for each of these corporations at this time.

Is it possible, considering the above, to waive these penalties?

Your understanding and help will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely Ron Warner

PS

When I sent my Sept 8th letter I also sent the "2004 For Profit Corporation Annual Report" form, for all 3 companies, with your return letter of Sept 22, you returned only 2 forms, RWR Holdings Inc. and Decorating Masters Inc. Enclosed with this letter and checks, I have returned the 2 that I received back, you must still have the DMI Franchise Inc form.

Tyrone, as per our discussion this morning, the reasons for the late filing for Decorating Masters Inc. Ref# P03000084543 are the following.

1. The 4 hurricanes that hit our area caused an interruption of business that we are just now getting out from under.
2. On October 18, 2004 I sent a $150.00 check with a letter of explanation on why we were filing late. Copy of letter is enclosed.
3. Check was cashed on October 26, 2004

For the reasons stated above would you please waive the late filing fee?

PLEASE NOTE!

We have been approved for a FEMA loan that will be processed as soon as we are in good standing regarding our taxes, in the state of Florida. It is impareative that this is handled as soon as possible. We are way behind in our bills and will not be able to stay in business much longer without this FEMA loan

Thanks for your help.

Sincerely

Ron Warner

Re: RWR Holdings Inc., DMI Franchise Inc. and Decorating Masters Inc.
annual report fee.

To Whom It May Concern:

I sent a letter to this office on Sept 8th explaining our situation and received a reply on Sept 22.

I subsequently talked to a gentleman in your office and he advised me to write and explain why it is impossible to pay the full amount at this time.

As I said in my Sept 3rd letter, the corporations in question had no income in the year of 2003..

I have enclosed 3 checks for $150.00 each drawn on the account of Custom Accents Inc. dba Decorating Masters Institute for the filing fee. Each of these 4 companies are wholly owned by Ron and Rita Warner.

Decorating Masters Institute is a school that teaches Faux Finishing, Decorative Painting, and other art skills. Since the hurricanes the class attendance is less then 20% of normal. We are struggling to pay our rent and utilities just to stay in business. We have applied for a SBA business interruption loan to help bridge this loss of business gap.
