September 3, 2003

Dear Mr. Scott,

In accordance with our conversation this date, I am returning For Profit Corporation Uniform Business Report along with a check for $83.00. While I do know that the filing fee is $150.00, sometime in July I tried to file online and gave my credit card number. It seems that the state had my corporation listed under a Not For Profit Corporation and the filing fee was $70.00 which was charged to my credit card. I received an email from Donna Graves and contacted her and she sent me a new For Profit Corporation Form and told me that the Department of Corporations would hold the $70.00 that was charged to my credit card and I was to send an additional check in the amount of $83.00. I was to send this to the attention of Sean Toner. This is what I did and, in return, I received a letter from Mr. Toner stating that the filing fee is $150.00 and my $83.00 check was returned. I am therefore resubmitting the form with my FEI number and the same $83.00 check. I am hoping that this will clarify the matter and my corporation will be renewed for the year 2003.

Thank you for taking care of this matter.

Sincerely,

Arlene Novick
