(a) In furtherance, and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized:

To make, amend, and alter By-laws of this corporation.

To fix the amount to be reserved as working capital over and above its capital stock paid in.

To authorize and cause to be executed mortgages and liens upon the real and personal property of the corporation.

From time to time to determine whether and to what extent and at which times and places and under what conditions and regulations the accounts of the corporation other than the stock book, or any of them, shall be open to inspection of the stockholders; and no stockholder shall have any right of inspecting any account book or document of this corporation except as conferred by statute unless authorized by resolution of the stockholders or directors.

(b) Pursuant to the affirmative vote of stockholders of record, holding stock in the corporation entitling them to exercise at least a majority of the voting power, given at a stockholders' meeting duly called for that purpose, or when authorized by the written consent of stockholders of record holding stock in the corporation entitling them to exercise at least a majority of the voting power, the Board of Directors shall have power and authority at any meeting to sell, lease, or exchange all the property and assets of this corporation, upon such terms and conditions as its Board of Directors deems expedient for the best interest of the corporation.

(c) This corporation may in its By-laws confer upon its directors, power in addition to the foregoing and in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon it by the statutes, but not in violation thereof.

(d) Each stockholder of the corporation shall have the right upon the sale for cash of any new stock of the corporation of the same kind, class or series as that which he already holds, to purchase a prorata share of such stock at the price that it is offered to others. Any part of the notes, debentures, bonds or other securities convertible into or carrying warrants or options to purchase stock of this corporation may at any time be issued, optioned for sale and sold or disposed of by the corporation pursuant to resolution of its Board of Directors to such persons and upon such terms as may be to such Board of Directors proper but not without first offering such security to the existing stockholders of the corporation, prorata.

(e) No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation, in the absence of fraud, shall be effected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the Directors of the corporation is or are interested in, or a Director or officer or Directors or officers of any other corporation, and any Director or Directors, individually or jointly may be party or parties to, or may be interested in such contract, act or transaction, or in any way connected with such person or persons, firm, or corporation, and each and every person who may become a Director of the corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from this contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association or corporation in which he may be in anywise interested. Any Director of the corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the corporation and any subsidiary or controlled corporation without regard to the fact that he is also a Director of such subsidiary or controlled corporation.

(f) Both stockholders and directors shall have power, if the By-laws so provide, to hold their meetings within or without the State of Florida, and to keep the books of the corporation outside of the State of Florida at such places, as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

(g) This corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provisions contained in this Article of Incorporation in the same manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation, provided, however, that all such action be in accord with the laws of Florida.

ARTICLE XI

Each director and officer, in consideration for his services, shall be indemnified, whether then in office or not, for the reasonable costs and expenses incurred by him in connection with the defense of, or for advice concerning, any claim asserted or proceeding brought against him by reason of his being or having been a Director or officer of the corporation or of any subsidiary of the corporation, whether or not wholly owned, or by reason of any act of omission to act as such Director or officer, provided that he shall not have been derelict in the performance of his duty as to the matter or matters in respect to which such claim is asserted or proceeding brought. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be inclusive of any other rights to which any director or officer may be entitled as a matter of law.
