B. RELOCATION OF OFFICES: The board of directors may move the corporate office to any other address, upon proper election and vote.

C. VOTING: One Hundred Percent (100%) of the directors shall constitute a quorum for a meeting of the board of directors of this Corporation. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present, or if a director has abstained from voting because of an interest in the matter to be voted upon, the unanimous vote of the directors present and voting shall be the act of the board of directors.

D. INFORMAL ACTION: If the required majority of the directors of shareholders severally or collectively consent in writing to any action taken or to be taken by the corporation, and the writings evidencing their consent are filed with the Secretary of the corporation, the action shall be as valid as though it had been authorized at a meeting of the Board of Directors or Shareholders.

E. INDEMNIFICATION: In order to induce officers or directors of the corporation to serve or continue to serve as such, the corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each person who shall serve at any time as a director of officer of the corporation, and any person who serves at the request of this corporation as a director or officer of any other corporation, from and against any and all claims and liabilities to which such person shall become subject by reason of his having heretofore or hereafter taken or omitted any legal action as director or officer, and shall reimburse each such person for all legal and other expenses reasonably incurred by him in connection with any such claim or liability; provided that no connection with any finding or judgment of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his duties.

The rights accruing to any person under the foregoing provisions shall not exclude any other right to which he may be lawfully entitled, nor shall anything herein contained restrict the right of the corporation to indemnify or reimburse such person in any proper case though not specifically provided for herein.

F. CONFLICT OF INTEREST:

(A) No contract or other transaction shall be either void or voidable because it is between a corporation and one and more of its directors or officers, or between a corporation and any other corporation, firms, entities, persons, individuals, partnerships, or associations in which one or more of its directors or officers, are financially interested, or be reason alone that such directors and/or officers is/are present at the meeting of the board of directors or of a committee or corporate meeting which approves such contract or transaction, of that their vote is/are counted for such purpose:

1. If the fact of such common directorship, officership, or financial interest is disclosed or known to the board of directors or committee, and the corporate board of committee approves such contract or transaction by vote sufficient for such purpose without counting the vote or votes of such interested party(s); or

2. If such directorship, officership or financial interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote thereon and such contract or transaction is approved by vote of the shareholders; or

3. If the contract or transaction is fair and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it is approved by the board of directors of corporate committee or shareholders.

(B) Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at a meeting of the corporate board of committee which may ratify such contract or transaction.

G. GROUNDS FOR REMOVAL OF OFFICE: At a meeting of the shareholders, called expressly for this purpose, any and all directors or officers may be removed with or without cause by a majority vote of the shareholders entitled to vote at an election of the board.

ARTICLE: VIII
ELECTION OF A TRUSTEE:

A majority of directors of shareholders severally or collectively may appoint a blank trust at their discretion, at any time, if a conflict of ownership arises. The named trustee will have the managing and decision making power and all other powers otherwise inherent in the corporate board of directors. The trust will serve until such time that there is no longer a conflict of ownership and/or until the appointing board of directors elects to relieve the trustee of his duties or a court order, at which such time the appointing board will resume power and duties.
