ARTICLE V

The following general provisions shall govern this corporation:

The time and place of the annual stockholders meeting shall be fixed and provided for in the by-laws and notice of same shall be given in one of the methods provided by law. Any meeting of stockholders may be held within or without this state. Any stockholder may waive notice of the time, place and purpose of any meeting, either before, after or at such meeting.

ARTICLE VI

There shall be a President of this corporation, who shall also be a director, one or more Vice Presidents, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine, a Secretary and a Treasurer. Such officers shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall hold office subject to the laws of the State of Florida or until their successors are elected and qualified.

All of the officers, agents and employees of the corporation shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be prescribed by the by-laws or determined by the Board of Directors.

Any person may hold two or more offices.

ARTICLE VII

The general nature of the business to be transacted shall be as follows:

(a) To do all such things as are incidental to the accomplishment of the following objects or purposes, or any of them, or necessary or incidental to the protection or benefit of the corporation; and to transact any other kind of business that may seem to the corporation capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of said purposes or objects or calculated either directly or indirectly to enhance the value of, or render profitable any of the corporation's property or rights or beneficial or desirable for the stockholders of this corporation, not contrary to the laws of this State, and whether or not of the same nature as, or similar nature to, any of the purposes hereinafter expressed.

(b) To have and to exercise all of the powers granted by the laws of Florida to corporations. The following clauses shall be construed as objects and powers and shall not be held or construed in any way to limit or restrict or confine the powers of this corporation, provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to grant this corporation banking powers or any right, powers or privileges not permitted by the laws of Florida to corporations.

(c) To acquire, own, hold and deal in real property as agent, owner, or broker; to exchange, mortgage, deed in kinds of lands, improved, rights of way, easements and any and all other property of any and every kind or description, real, personal or mixed, wheresoever situated, including water and water rights, to construct, as builder, owner or contractor, to maintain, equip, operate, and furnish dwelling houses, apartment houses, business buildings or blocks, office buildings, manufacturing or industrial works and plants, and other buildings of any kind.

(d) To supervise and manage all classes of properties, income bearing or otherwise, for this corporation or for other persons, corporations and/or associations; to act as agent, broker or attorney in fact, on a commission basis or otherwise, for any other person, corporation or association, to negotiate sales, leases, mortgages, deeds of trust and other encumbrances of properties of other persons, corporations and associations, real, personal and mixed, wheresoever situated; and generally to maintain, conduct and carry on the business of real estate agent and broker.
