a. The Board of Directors from time to time shall determine whether and to what extent, and at which time and places, and under what conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the Corporation or any of them shall be open to inspection of the stockholders, and no stockholder shall have any right to inspect any account or document of the Corporation, except as conferred by statute or authorized by the Board of Directors, or by resolution of the stockholders.

b. No person shall be required to own, hold or control stock in the Corporation as a condition precedent to holding an office in this Corporation.

c. The Directors may prescribe a method or methods for replacement of lost stock certificates and prescribe reasonable conditions of security upon issue of new certificates therefore.

d. The original incorporators of the Corporation shall have the right upon its organization, to assign and deliver their subscriptions of stock as set forth in Article X hereof to any other person, or to the firms or corporations who may hereafter become subscribers to the capital stock of the Corporation, who, upon acceptance of such assignment, shall stand in lieu of the original incorporators, and assume and carry out all of the rights, liabilities and duties entailed by said subscription, subject to the laws of the State of Florida, and the execution of the necessary instruments of assignment.

e. No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any other corporation, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the Directors of the Corporation are interested in, or are a Director or Officer of such other corporation, and any Director, individually, or jointly, may be a party or parties to, or may be interested in any such contract or transaction of the Corporation or in which the Corporation is interested, and each and every person who may become a Director of the Corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from any association or corporation in which that Director may be anywise interested. Any Director of the Corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any other entity without regard to the fact that said Director is also a director of or partner in such entity.

f. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, any holder of stock of the Corporation shall be entitled as a matter of right, to purchase or subscribe any stock of any class which the Corporation may issue or sell whether or not exchangeable for any stock of the Corporation acquired by it after the issue thereof and whether issued for cash, labor done, personal property or real property, leases or any other valuable consideration.

ARTICLE X. RESTRICTION ON TRANSFER OF SHARES: Any shareholder desiring to transfer any stock shall do so only in accordance with the terms set forth in the by-laws or by separate agreement of the stockholders, which agreement, if any, shall be noted on the face of each certificate issued by the Corporation.

ARTICLE XI. SUBSCRIBER: The name and address of the subscriber to these Articles of Incorporation is:

Autumn L. Smith
4255 Tangelo Ave
