May 3, 2007

To whom it may concern,

Earlier today I spoke to a Customer Service Representative from your office and explained to him that my company was administratively dissolved through no fault of mine. The registered agent that was on file resigned without given me any consent. When I went to renew on May 1, 2007 I discovered that the company had been dissolved due to his resignation. Additionally my registered agent had placed his office addresses as points of contact therefore leaving me without any addresses to which receive information. So that I could file in a timely manner. I sincerely ask to have the late fees removed and I hereby submit my fee of $150.00 plus the monies for a certificate of status and do hereby request that my company DLM Development be placed in active status as soon as you possibly can. I thank you for your time and assistance with this matter.

Sincerely,

Danny Yero
President
