The Corporation shall indemnify managers and officers of the Corporation who was/were wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the manager or officer was/were a party because the manager or officer is or was or were a manager or officer of the Corporation against reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the manager or officer in connection with the proceeding. The Corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a manager, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation against liability if authorized in the specific case after determination, in the manner required by the member(s), that indemnification of the manager, officer, employee or agent, as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the manager, officer, employee or agent has met the standard of conduct set forth by the member(s). The indemnification and advancement of attorney fees and expenses for managers, officers, employees and agents of the Corporation shall apply when such persons are serving at the Corporation's request while a manager, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, as the case may be, as a manager, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other corporation, whether or not for profit, as well as in their official capacity with the Corporation. The Corporation also may pay for or reimburse the reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by a manager, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding.

The Corporation also may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual's status as a manager, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, whether or not the Corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law. All references in these Articles of Organization are deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in these Articles of Organization shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of attorney fees and expenses to any person who is or was a manager, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or the ability of the Corporation otherwise to indemnify or advance expenses to any such person by contract or in any other manner. If any word, clause or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of the attorney fees or expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise affected. All references in these Articles of Organization to "manager", "officer", "employee", and "agent" shall include the heirs, estates, executors, administrators and personal representatives of such persons.
