Dear Mr. Scott:

I received your letter dated July 23, 2004. You mentioned that I had to pay a late fee, so I forwarded the letter to my accountant. He called the Fla. Dept. of State and spoke to a person named Barbara. I opened my Corporation on 11-21-03. I never received a first letter asking for the annual report of fee. I did, though, receive a post card indicating An Intent to Dissolve. I immediately forwarded the post card to my accountant who went on line and e-mailed me the form that I needed to complete and mail back with the Appropriate $150.00 annual report fee.

Barbara indicated to my accountant that I should send this letter of explanation and resend the $150.00 check to file the profit annual report.

I hope I have done the correct thing.

Please waive the late fee of $400 for I never did receive your first request, I only received the post card. I am very conscientious and I would never deliberately not follow through With a payment that was due to keep my corporation active.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

June M Prophet
