To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter in good faith and hoping that you will find compassion in my situation.

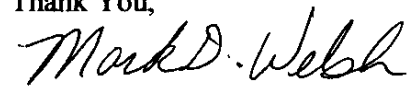

Due to our past storms with hurricanes, our mobile home suffered damage: windows were broken out and roof damaged. Some very important papers were destroyed and lost unfortunately my corporation information was among the lost and destroyed papers. We also had to move due to the storms and with moving many important papers had to be replaced, unfortunately the corporation renewal was overlooked.

I would very much appreciate if your office would be so kind as to reinstate my Corporation Mark Welsh Inc:

I spoke with a representative in your office and he said to write this letter and send $450.00 check and you will consider waving the penalty fee.

Any assistance that your office can give me would be and is greatly appreciated.

Thank You,

Mark Welsh
