RE: Corporation Fee

In filing to be a corporation Mr. Goodwin acquired the services of an attorney to file for him. The reason he needed a corporation was so that he could remain workman comp exempt. His exemption was good through the year 2003. His corporation was to take over then so he could continue his Work Comp Exemption. Anyway this is the way he understood it. He paid the Corporation Fee and thought it was good for this year. I asked him if he received his post card for the coming year he said no. I went on line and it said he needed to file.

I tried to download the paperwork for him and could not get it to print. I had one of the other try and still could not get it to work properly it came as machine language. I finally called and was sent a form that was for non-profit. I called again and now have the correct form.

Seeing he has been completely mixed up over this and thought he was doing everything correctly and did not receive notification we ask that you waive the additional fee for this year.

Would very much appreciate anything you can do to help this small businessperson.

Sincerely yours,

Eleanore B. Scott
