RE: Document #P03000122270

To Whom It May Concern:

The above referenced corporation paid the $150.00 UBR Fee in April 2004. Per your office, you show receipt early May 2004. However, there was never a report filed. A letter was issued to the entity stating it needed to file the report, and in the confusion of the first year of business, it never got filed.

In September 2004, this entity was dissolved involuntarily for not filing the UBR. We contacted your office today and were instructed to file a UBR with a letter attached stating the $150 was already paid and the entity would then be reinstated.

Unfortunately, we could not download a blank UBR and your online system must have an active entity to create one for you. So, we are attaching a reinstatement form, which should suffice for the purpose needed. Actually, might be better as we are technically "reinstating" the company as it was dissolved.

Should you have any questions or problems, please contact me directly at (904) 223-9331.

Sincerely,

Pete Orlando, CPA
