The stock of this corporation shall be restricted as to transfer. No stockholder shall sell, assign, encumber or otherwise dispose of his stock either in whole or in part, during his lifetime, without first making a written offer to sell such shares to the corporation. The corporation shall have sixty (60) days within which to elect to purchase the stock of the withdrawing stockholder at a price which shall be either the price at which it was offered to the corporation or the book value of the stock, whichever is lower. The book value of the stock shall be determined by the certified public accountant then servicing the corporation, ascertaining the assets and liabilities of the corporation as of the end of the month during which the written offer of the stockholder shall have been made in accordance with generally accepted accounting principals, except that good will and other intangible property shall be deemed of no value and shall be excluded and not considered. The accountant shall determine the net assets by subtracting the liabilities from the assets and shall divide the net assets by the number of common shares issued and outstanding to arrive at the value of each common share. The purchase price, if the book value price is used, shall then be the value of each share, multiplied by the number of shares held by the withdrawing stockholder.

If no election to purchase the stock of the withdrawing stockholder is made by the corporation, then the withdrawing stockholder shall make a written offer to sell his stock to the other stockholders of the corporation for the same price and subject to the same conditions as offered to the corporation. Each stockholder shall be empowered to purchase a portion of the shares offered based on the ration of the shares owned by all of the nonwithdrawing stockholders, except that if any stockholder does not purchase his portion of the shares offered, such portion shall then be available to the other stockholders on a proportional basis.

If no election is made, either by the corporation or by any of the other stockholders to purchase the offered stock, the withdrawing stockholder shall be free to dispose of his stock without regard to the terms of this Article; provided, however, that the sale of such stock shall not be made at any lower price than that at which it was offered the corporation originally and provided further that the sale of stock shall not be made later than 120 days after the stock was offered to the corporation or the other stockholders as set forth herein.

All stock issued by the corporation shall have a reference upon the certificate of stock as follows: "NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, or other disposition of the shares of capital stock represented by this certificate are subject to restrictions upon transfer as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation, a copy of said Articles being on file in the office of the Secretary of the corporation and the Office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida." Any attempted sale in violation of this provision shall be null and void.

ARTICLE XII: PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

Every stockholder, upon the sale for cash of any new stock of the same kind, class, or series as that which he already holds, shall have the rights to purchase his pro rata share thereof (as nearly as may be done without the issuance of fractional shares) at the price at which it is offered to others, which price, in the case of par value shares, may be in excess of par.

ARTICLE XIII: INDEMNITY

The corporation shall indemnify any officer or director, or any former officer or director, to the full extent permitted by law.

ARTICLE XIV: BOARD MEETINGS

Members of the Board of Directors may participate in special meetings of the Board of Directors by means of conference telephone as provided by law, but regular meetings of the Board of Directors must be attended in fact in person by each director.
