ARTICLE VII - MISCELLANEOUS

The following additional provisions for the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation and creating, dividing, limiting and regulating the power of the Corporation, its stockholders and directors, are hereby adopted as a part of these Articles of Incorporation:

1. No person shall be required to own, hold or control stock in the Corporation as a condition precedent to holding an office in this Corporation.
2. The Board of Directors may prescribe a method or methods for replacement of lost certificates and prescribe reasonable conditions by way of security upon the issue of new certificates therefor.
3. In addition to other powers granted by these Articles of Incorporation and by law, the Corporation shall have power to adopt By-Laws not inconsistent with law or these Articles of Incorporation, and to change, amend and repeal the name, for the exercise and government of its affairs and property, the transfer of its records of its stock or other securities, and the calling and holding of meetings of its stockholders. In no event, however, shall the By-Laws which may be adopted, or any provision thereof, limit in any way the powers or rights of the Corporation provided by the law and by these Articles of Incorporation.

4. The Board of Directors, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office, and irrespective of any personal interest of any of its members, shall have authority to establish reasonable compensation of all directors for services to the Corporation as directors, officers, or otherwise.
5. The Corporation shall indemnify any officer or director, or any former officer or director, to the fullest extent permitted by law.
