Dear Sir/Mrs.,

It has come to my attention that I did not pay the $150.00 renew fee by May 1, 2004. I called the office of the Division of Corporations to find how I am to proceed and that I thought that when I had incorporated, on December 15, 2003, I had already paid this fee. The gentleman was nice to explain that there is one due date for everyone no matter when in the year you were incorporated.

The last two month we have been renovating a house and moving into the house. When the post card came to the P.O. Box I put it into the binder with all of the incorporation papers. I went into the book to make some copies of certain documents because Richard Cassesse Jr. Will be taking a test in November for the state of Florida.

This is the first time we have been incorporated and the first time I am responsible for the office work, employee pay and accounting. I assumed that we had paid the fee when we incorporated and put the card in the binder because I am afraid to throw anything away when information comes about anything to do with being incorporated. It is my ignorance not to have asked when the card came in the mail and to be doing it now.

I thank you in advanced for your help in this matter and apologize for creating extra work for you. I can assure you that this will not happen again and that I have been made aware of, from the helpful information from the gentleman I talked to from you office, concerning this matter and other things that are of importance to a company when it is incorporated.

Sincerely,

Lisa Cassesse Secretary, Treasure
