To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is to advise you that we did not receive the first notice for 2004 to renew our Corporate character. We feel as such by attaching this letter to our Annual Report and also attaching a check for $150.00, the original amount due we should be paid in full. We also ask that you check your records to be sure you have our correct address and other information necessary to insure that our company receives the first notice next year.

We thank you for your prompt and careful consideration in this matter.

Respectfully,

Michael D. Ile
