To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter in regards to my 2004 annual report. My document number is P03000142144. As a new incorporation, I was unaware of my responsibility to file an annual report so soon. I set up my corporation in December 2003 to start my business in 2004. I did not anticipate an annual report to be due until next year. I also did not receive any reminder notices stating this was my responsibility. I was alerted of my responsibility when I received a Notice of Intent to Dissolve.

Over the past weeks, I have been preparing my business as well as my family for the impact of our 3 hurricanes as I was in the path of the first two. This, as well as our state being in a state of emergency, has aided in my lack of ability to adhere to the deadline of filing this report.

I was not trying to willfully neglect my responsibilities to pay and file this report. I am now aware of my responsibility to pay and file this report every year. I hope you will take my situation in consideration for abatement of penalties.

Should you have any questions or need any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at 407-696-6352 or 407-529-7205. Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Monica Greep
