Dear Madam:

We humbly request abatement of the penalty for not filing the 2005 Annual Report. We did not receive prior notification of having to file this report. Also, since it is our first year in business, we were not aware of this annual filing requirement. It came to our attention when we received your postcard and we contacted our accountant. Our accountant knew how to download the report and did so for us, so we can now file this report.

As you can see by the updates we made to the report, we changed our mailing address to our accountant's office so this oversight doesn't happen again.

Thank you for considering our plea for leniency.

Sincerely,

David English
President
