(f) commingle its assets with the assets of any of its directors, shareholders, affiliates, principals or of any other person or entity;

(g) incur any debt, secured or unsecured, direct or contingent (including guaranteeing any obligation), other than a first mortgage loan for the Property, and except for trade payables in the ordinary course of its business of owning and operating the Property, provided that such debt is not evidenced by a note and is paid when due;

(h) become insolvent and fail to pay its debts and liabilities from its assets as the same shall become due;

(i) fail to maintain its records, books of account and bank accounts separate and apart from those of its directors, shareholders, principals and affiliates and the affiliates of the directors, shareholders or principal of the corporation and any other person or entity;

(j) enter into any contract or agreement with any director, shareholder, principal or affiliate of the corporation, except upon terms and conditions that are intrinsically fair and substantially similar to those that would be available on an arms-length basis with third parties other than any director, shareholder, principal or affiliate of the corporation;

(k) seek the dissolution or winding up in whole, or in part, of the corporation;

(l) fail to correct any known misunderstandings regarding the separate identity of the corporation;

(m) hold itself out to be responsible for the debts of another person;

(n) make any loans or advances to any third party, including any directors, shareholders, principal or affiliate of the corporation;

(o) fail to file its own tax returns;

(p) fail to either to hold itself out to the public as a legal entity separate and distinct from any other entity or person or to conduct its business solely in its own name in order not (i) to mislead others as to the identity with which such other party is transacting business, or (ii) to suggest that the corporation is responsible for the debts of any third party;

(q) to carry on a general mercantile, industry

(r) fail to maintain adequate capital for the normal obligations reasonably foreseeable in a business of its size and character and in light of its contemplated business operations

(s) file or consent to the filing of any petition, either voluntary or involuntary, to take advantage of any applicable insolvency, bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization statute, or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

II. To carry on a general mercantile, industrial, investing, and trading business in all its branches; to devise, invent, manufacture, fabricate, assemble, install, service, maintain, alter, buy, sell, import, export, license as licensor or licensee, lease as lessor or lessee, distribute, job, enter into, negotiate, execute, acquire, and assign contracts in respect of, acquire, receive, grant, and assign licensing arrangements, options, franchises, and other rights in respect of, and generally deal in and with, at wholesale and retail, as principal, and as sales, business, special or general agent, representative, broker, factor, merchant, distributor, jobber, advisor, and in any other lawful capacity, goods, wares, merchandise, commodities, and unimproved, improved, finished, processed, and other real, personal, and mixed property of any and all kinds, together with the components, resultants, and by-products thereof; to acquire by purchase or otherwise own, hold, lease, mortgage, sell, or otherwise dispose of, erect, construct, make, alter, enlarge, improve, and to aid or subscribe toward the construction, acquisition, or improvement of any factories, shops, storehouses, buildings, and commercial and retail establishments of every character, including all equipment, fixtures, machinery, implements and supplies necessary, or incidental to, or connected with, any of the purposes or business of the corporation; and generally to perform any and all acts connected therewith or arising therefrom or incidental thereto, and all acts proper or necessary for the purpose of the business.

III. To engage generally in the real estate business as principal, agent, broker, and in any lawful capacity, and generally to take, lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to own, use, hold, sell, convey, exchange, lease, mortgage, work, clear, improve, develop, divide, and otherwise handle,
