To whom it may concern,

I am sending this statement in response to the fact you have no record of my completed registration form for 2004. After having the form sent back to me for entry of my Federal Employee Identification Number, I filled in the appropriate information and sent the form back in. It seems the form was not received or the information was not entered into your system.

I am now sending in a reinstatement form with this information in hopes that it will reach the proper personnel.

I am also including my fee for 2005 registration of $150⁰⁰.

I have been informed by your representative that waiting this letter explaining the situation and including my fee for this year's registration would relieve me of the reinstatement fee obligation.

Thank You for Your Time

Sincerely, Daniel Sanders
