Dear Sir or Madam,

Our original paperwork to become a corporation was sent in to be filed on December 23rd 2003. In January 2004 we did not receive any letter from you to file our annual report/uniform business report. We did however receive it in August and paid it before the September 8th dead line. This is our very first business & we don't know about all the paperwork but what ever comes we pay immediately. We checked the appropriate box on our paperwork now. Please waive the 400⁰⁰ late fee. Thank you for all your patience and understanding. The associate on the phone from your office was also very nice to me when informing me that I needed to send this letter my thanks to all of you.

Sincerely,

Tim & Mary Smith.
