Dear Examiner:

We had sent on 04/28/05 our annual report and the designated payment of $150.00 per the requirements. Please see attached proof of your deposit of our check. The annual report was not entered in your system even though the check was cashed. In the annual report we had reported a change in address per the above. You sent us correspondence asking for some information, we never received because of the address change. I spoke to an examiner in your office and she stated that we should send this letter and the annual report again.

Thank you so much for your prompt attention to this matter and please send any future correspondence to the address stated above.

Truly Yours

ROBERTINO GARDUNO

Robertino Garduno, President
