Dear Sir/Madam:

My name is Benjamin Santana. I am writing on behalf of my Father-in-Law. This week I came to Orlando, Florida on business.

Today when I went to visit with him at his home, he mentioned to me that he had not received the Annual Report form for Florida Corporations. He asked me if I could find out when is the fee is due and that he wanted to pay it on time to avoid any penalties. Last year he had to pay a penalty because he did not received the Annual Report form and when he received a letter informing him that his fee was not paid, he ended paying a hefty penalty.

This year the same scenario has happened. He has not received the Annual Report form. After I researching your web site, I noticed that your fee is due by April 30, 2006. Three days ago. My Father-in-Law has not received any past due notice about the fee for the Annual Report. I also notice, copy enclosed, that your information page for the 2006 Annual Report regarding my Father-in-Law's annual fee states "After May 1 of each year, a late charge of $400.00 is imposed except in circumstances in which the entity did not receive prior notice. As I have said above, my Father-in-Law did not received notice.

For the reasons explained above, my Father-in-Law is requesting that the penalty be waived.

Thank you for your time in considering this matter.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Santana
