To whom it may concern:

I would like to bring to your attention that a corporation has been re-filed under my name without my approval, knowledge or electronic signature. I need your immediate attention in removing my name from the aforementioned corporation.

In March of 2013, I sold my business, Nothing But Initials, Incorporated, to a Mr. Kevin Meyer and immediately filed papers with your office to resign myself as president (since I obviously had no further interest in this corporation). This letter of resignation was filed on the Nothing But Initials, Incorporated, web page, and I also have attached a copy for your immediate reference.

A friend of mine brought to my attention earlier today that the corporation is STILL under my name with me as president and Mr. Meyer as a secretary! This is absolutely, positively a case of fraud; again, I sold the business outright to Mr. Meyer and have nothing to do with it in any way, shape, manner or form. And, to reiterate, his adding my name electronically within the annual report was done without my knowledge. I did not re-file any corporate renewal paperwork; in fact, the last communication I had with your office about Nothing But Initials, Incorporated, was in March of 2013 when I mailed you the letter of resignation from the corporation.

I also have attached copies of the bill of sale and related paperwork found on your website. If you need any help in resolving any further issues or if I can be of any help, please don't hesitate to contact me at the telephone number/email address found above.

Thank you.

Very sincerely,

Eric Hanson
