Gentlemen:

I hereby request that you please consider not charging the $400.00 late fee for the following reason:

As the Vice-President-Finance of Telo, Inc. I am responsible for the preparation and filing of all of the tax returns for the corporation. I reside in Atlanta, GA and spend 7-10 days a month in Florida attending to the financial needs of Telo, Inc. All forms, papers, correspondence, etc. for the company are put into a file drawer for my attention when I am in Florida.

On March 2, 2001, while in Atlanta, I fell and shattered my ankle. I had to have surgery with plates and screws being put into my ankle/foot. The doctors did not put a cast on, as they were concerned about my sugar diabetes, and felt the need to check me weekly for any problems that could occur. I was told to stay off the foot, and not do any traveling until the ankle was completely healed in order to avoid any complications due to both my age (73) and the diabetes.

I have not been back to Florida, and did not realize that this paperwork was pending. It was brought to my attention when the company received another copy of the report form requiring the $550.00 filing fee. At that time, they contacted me, and I am at this time responding by way of this letter. I do expect to start to travel again in August.

I would appreciate your consideration by not charging Telo, Inc. the penalty. All filings in the past have been made in a timely manner.

Very truly yours,

William E. Hulén, V. Pres
