Re: Document # P04000000241
From: J.A.M. Drywall & Repairs, Inc.

April 30, 2007

Dear Sir or Madam:

Today, April 30, 2007, at 5:00 P.M. I received your For Profit Corporation Annual Report (AR) in which you warn me that if I don't send the payment of $150.00 (which I punctually send every year) before May 1, you will charge me $550.50.

You sent this report the night before it is due, without postage date, without giving me any time to send the payment back to you within the time frame you demand that this be paid.

You may blame the post office or whoever you want, but the least you were supposed to do is to send it with enough time for me to complete the form and send the payment. I am definitely not sending the extra money you decided to charge because the envelope (see attached copy) has no postage date and you are not proving to me that you sent it with enough time for me to take care of it.

Also, you wrote a wrong FEI number. The number 54-2135305 is wrong. My FEI number is 60-0006654. Please correct it.

I am enclosing my payment of $150.00, check # 1594 with the document # P04000000241. This will leave the post office tomorrow, May 1, 2007. My envelope will have a postage date!

Sincerely,

J.A.M. Drywall & Repairs, Inc.
