ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

PHILIP THOMAS COMPANY

A Florida Corporation

FILED
04 JAN 12 PM 3:00
CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

I, the undersigned person, hereby subscribe to and present these Articles of Incorporation, for purpose of forming a corporation pursuant to and under the Laws of the State of Florida, as the same provide for the formation, rights, privileges, immunities, and liabilities of a corporation for profit.

ARTICLE FIRST

NAME

The name of the Corporation is PHILIP THOMAS COMPANY, and it shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Corporation".

ARTICLE SECOND

DURATION

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE THIRD

PURPOSE

The general nature of the business, objects, and purposes proposed to be transacted, promoted, and carried on by the Corporation are to do any and all the things hereinafter mentioned, as fully and to the same extent as natural persons might or could do the same; to-wit:

- A. To carry on any lawful business activity.
- B. To exercise any and all powers conferred upon corporations for profit pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 607, Florida Statutes, and any such powers and rights which may subsequently be enacted into law in the State of Florida, in regard to the business activities of the Corporation both within and without the State of Florida; and

- C. To do all and everything necessary and proper for the accomplishment of any and all the purposes or the attainment of any of the objects or the furtherance of any of the powers enumerated in these Articles of Incorporation or, of any Amendment hereof, necessary or incidental to the protection and benefit of the Corporation, as principal, agent, director, trustee, or otherwise; and, in general, either alone or in association with other corporations, firms, or individuals, to carry on any lawful business necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes or the obtainment of the objects as set forth in these Articles of Incorporation or, of any Amendment hereto.

The foregoing paragraphs of this Article Third of these Articles of Incorporation shall be construed and understood as enumerating both objects and powers of the Corporation; and, it is hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific powers and purposes of the Corporation shall not be held to limit or otherwise restrict its powers and business activities, save as expressly provided by law.

ARTICLE FOURTH

CAPITAL STOCK

The capital stock of the Corporation shall consist of one hundred (100) shares thereof at a par value of One Dollar ($1.00) per share, fully paid and non-assessable. The whole or any part of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America, or in property, labor, or services, at a just valuation to be fixed by the Directors of the Corporation. Property or labor may also be purchased with the capital stock of the Corporation at such valuation as shall be fixed by the Directors thereof.

Any and all such shares of stock shall not be liable for any further call or assessment or for any other payment thereupon. The shares of stock to be issued by the Corporation shall be subject to the following provisions and restrictions, upon and in regard to any and all sales and transfers thereof, to-wit:

In the event that a shareholder in the Corporation, by which term is included the executors, administrators, guardians, conservators, heirs, legatees, personal representatives, creditors, lienors, and trustees, as well as the attorneys-in-fact, agents, nominees, and proxies, of any such shareholder, shall desire to sell, assign, give, or otherwise transfer any such share-holder, shall desire to sell, assign, give, or otherwise transfer any shares of stock in the Corporation, then, in any such event, the person or entity desiring to do so must, by giving thirty (30) days written notice of such desire or intention to a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, afford the Corporation the right and privilege to purchase said shares of stock at a price equal to a bona fide firm offer for the same, in writing, made to such shareholder for the purchase of such share or shares of stock of the Corporation by a person, firm, corporation or other entity which is ready, willing, and able to purchase said stock at the price so offered to be paid; and, no stock of the Corporation shall be transferred upon its books, unless the foregoing requirements in regard thereto shall have been fully complied with, and any attempt to transfer such stock in any other manner shall be void and ineffective.

ARTICLE FIFTH

INITIAL CAPITAL

The amount of capital with which the Corporation shall begin business is One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars.

ARTICLE SIXTH

PRINCIPAL OFFICE AND MAILING ADDRESS

The principal office of the Corporation shall be situate at 454 - 22d Street, SE, Vero Beach, Indian River County, Florida 32962-8305, which shall also be the mailing address of the Corporation.

ARTICLE SEVENTH

REGISTERED AGENT AND OFFICE

The Registered Agent of the Corporation shall be PHILIP D. THOMAS, and the Registered Office of the Corporation shall be situate at 454 – 22d Street, SE, Vero Beach, Indian River County, Florida 32962-8305.

ARTICLE EIGHTH

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed and conducted by its Board of Directors. The initial Board of Directors shall consist of one member, who shall serve until such time as may be established in the By-Laws of the Corporation for the first annual meeting of the Board of Directors or until their resignation, whichever shall first occur. The By-Laws of the Corporation shall provide for the number of Directors, save for the number of initial members thereof, as aforewritten.

The name and address of the initial member of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, together with the Offices held by him, is as follows:

PHILIP D. THOMAS	President	454 – 22d Street, SE
	Secretary	Vero Beach
	Treasurer	Indian River County
		Florida 32962-8305

ARTICLE NINTH

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

The By-Laws of the Corporation may prescribe the number of Directors necessary for purpose of constituting a quorum of the Board of Directors, which number may be less than a majority of the whole Board of Directors.

In the event of a vacancy on the Board of Directors, on account of the death, resignation, disqualification or incapacity of a Director of the Corporation, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term thereof by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors.

In the event of any increase in the number of Directors of the Corporation by action of its Board of Directors, the additional number of Directors so authorized shall be elected by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then in office.

In furtherance, and not in limitation, of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is hereby expressly authorized as follows:

A. To make, alter, amend, or repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation, subject to the By-Laws adopted by the shareholders, if any;

B. If the By-Laws of the Corporation so provide, to designate by resolution two (2) or more of their number to constitute an Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, which Executive Committee, to the extent provided for in the resolution or in the By-Laws of the Corporation, shall have and may exercise any and all the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business, affairs, and property of the Corporation during the intervals between the meetings of the Board of Directors, and insofar as may be permitted by law; and

C. To determine, from time to time, whether and to what extent, and at which times and places, and under which conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the Corporation, other than the stock ledger, or any of them, shall be open to inspection by the shareholders; and, no shareholder of the Corporation shall have the right of inspection of any account, book, or document of the Corporation, save as such right may be conferred by statute, unless so authorized by resolution of the stockholders of the Corporation or of its Board of Directors.

At any meeting of its Board of Directors, the Corporation may sell, lease, or exchange any or all its property and assets, including its good will and its corporate business, upon such terms and conditions, either for cash, the securities of another corporation or corporations, or for such other consideration as its Board of Directors may deem to be expedient and for and in the best interests of the Corporation, when and as authorized by the written consent of the holders of record of at least two-thirds (66.6%) of the stock of each type which may be authorized, issued, and outstanding.

Both shareholders and members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have power, if the By-Laws of the Corporation so provide, to hold their meetings either within or without the territorial limits of the State of Florida; to have one or more offices; and, subject to the Laws of the State of Florida, to keep books of the Corporation within or without the territorial limits of said State, in such place or places as the Board of Directors may, from time to time, designate.

No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any other corporation shall, in the absence of fraud, be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation is or are interested in or, is a director or officer or, are directors or officers, of any such other corporation, and any Director or Directors, individually or jointly, may be a party or parties to or, may be interested in such contract of the Corporation or a contract in which the Corporation is interested; and, further, no contract, act, or transaction of the Corporation with any person or persons, firm, or corporation, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by reason of the fact that any member or members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation is a party or parties to or, is or are interested in such contract, act, or transaction or, is or are, in any way, connected with such person or persons, firm or corporation; and, each and every person who may become a member of the Board of Directors of the Corporation is hereby relieved from any liability which might otherwise exist from such contracting with the Corporation for the benefit of that person or the benefit of any firm, association, or corporation in which that person may be interested.

Any member of the Board of Directors of the Corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any subsidiary or controlled company, firm, or entity, without regard to the fact that such Director is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, as well as an officer, director, or shareholder of such other subsidiary or controlled company, firm, or entity.

ARTICLE TENTH

INCORPORATOR

The name and address of the Incorporator hereunder is as follows, to-wit:

PHILIP D. THOMAS 454 - 22d Street, SE
Vero Beach
Indian River County
Florida 32962-8305

ARTICLE ELEVENTH

AMENDMENTS

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended only in accordance with the provisions set forth and contained in Chapter 607, Florida Statutes, or in any corresponding provisions thereof which may hereafter be enacted into law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Incorporator has made and subscribed to these Articles of Incorporation, for the uses and purposes herein set forth and expressed at Vero Beach, Indian River County, Florida, this 9th day of January, 2004.
