To Whom It May Concern:

I did not receive the annual report postcard, however, I downloaded and printed what I thought was the correct paperwork off of the Sunbiz website. When I called in to ask a question about the document I was advised that if nothing had changed in the business to just sign it and mail it in, after doing so I received the form back in the mail with a notice stating that not only was it the wrong form but, now there is a late fee owed. The following day August 11, 2005, I called in and spoke to Ela Peterson, who advised that the wrong form was sent (it should have been the red paragraphed form) and that I can remit the same form that was returned to me along with a detailed explanation as to what had occurred.

I am following Ms. Peterson's direction by resubmitting the same form.

Thank you in advance for your attention to this matter.
