ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

HUMBERTO C. MACHADO, JR. M.D. P. A.

The undersigned hereby associate themselves for the purpose of becoming a corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, by and under the provisions of the Statutes of the said State of Florida, providing for the formation, rights, privileges, immunities, and liabilities of corporations for profit.

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation is: HUMBERTO C. MACHADO, JR. M.D. P. A. The corporation's principal place of business is 173 South Shore Drive, Coconut Grove, Florida 33133.

ARTICLE II

(a) This corporation is formed for the sole and specific purpose of rendering professional services to the general public as well as others, as medical doctors; and the corporation is specifically prohibited from carrying on any other business as so provided by Florida Statutes §621.08.

(b) Pursuant to Florida Statutes §621.09 and §621.10, this corporation shall have only shareholders, officers, and directors who are duly qualified and licensed to practice medicine in the State of Florida.

(c) Any meeting of the shareholders or directors may be held within or without the State of Florida, at such place as the by-laws of the corporation may designate.

(d) The corporation shall have the following rights and restrictions:

(1) The corporation shall have the right to purchase, take, receive or otherwise acquire, hold, own, pledge, grant a security interest in, transfer or otherwise dispose of its own shares; but purchases of its own shares, whether direct or indirect, shall be made only to the extent of unreserved and unrestricted surplus.

(2) To the extent that earned surplus or capital surplus is used as the measure of the corporation's right to purchase its own shares, such surplus shall be restricted so long as such shares are held as treasury shares. Such restriction shall be allocated on a pro rata basis to the treasury shares; and upon the disposition or cancellation of any such shares, the restriction shall be removed to the extent it is attributable to the shares disposed of or cancelled.

(3) Notwithstanding the limitations contained in subsection (1), the corporation may purchase or otherwise acquire its own shares for the purpose of:

- (i) Eliminating fractional shares.
- (ii) Collecting or compromising indebtedness to the corporation.
- (iii) Paying dissenting shareholders entitled to payment for their shares under the provisions of the General Corporation Act.
- (iv) Effecting, subject to the other provisions of the General Corporation Act, the retirement of its redeemable shares by redemption or by purchase at not to exceed the redemption price.

(4) No purchase of or payment for its own shares shall be made by the corporation when the corporation is insolvent or when such payment would make it insolvent.

(e) The corporation may keep the books of the company outside the state of Florida, except as may otherwise be provided by law.

(f) The corporation may make by-laws not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of the United States, the State of Florida, or with these Articles of Incorporation.

(g) The corporation shall have full power and lawful authority to issue, execute, assign and endorse notes, mortgages, bonds and all other negotiable papers; to hold, buy and sell stock of other corporations; to secure any indebtedness due it in the same manner common to natural persons. It shall have the full power to loan money and to secure the payment thereof by accepting mortgages, personal endorsements, or assignments of personal property or other security. It may sue or be sued, contract or be contracted with, and do any and all other acts necessary or incidental to the powers herein specifically designated.

(b) The shareholders shall have the power, either in the by-laws of the corporation or by contractual agreement among themselves, to make any provisions for cumulative voting and to make any limitations on the sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation, or other disposition of the stock of the corporation, as to which the shareholders of the corporation deem necessary and/or proper, for the best interests of the corporation.

(i) The objects and purposes specified in the foregoing clauses shall, except where otherwise specified, be in no wise limited or restricted, by reference to, or inference from, the terms of any other clause in these Articles of Incorporation; but the objects and purposes specified in each of the foregoing clauses of these Articles shall be regarded as independent objects and purposes.

ARTICLE III

(a) The shareholders are authorized to enter into an agreement regarding the limitations and requirements of voting, which said agreement shall be binding upon all persons.

(b) The maximum shares of stock which this corporation is authorized to have outstanding at any time shall be 7,500 shares common, at ONE ($1.00) DOLLAR par value each.

(c) All of the aforementioned stock is to be issued as fully paid for and non-assessable.

(d) There shall be preemptive rights to acquire un-issued or treasury shares of the corporation, or securities of the corporation convertible into or carrying a right to or acquiring shares. Subject to the provisions of Florida Statutes §621.09 and §621.10, stock in other corporations or going businesses may be purchased by the corporation in return for the issuance of its capital stock; the said purchase shall be on such basis, and for such consideration, and the issuance of so much capital stock as the Directors of the Corporation may decide.
