SUBJECT: Reinstatement of JL's Tile Service, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

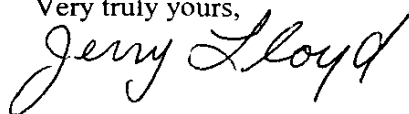

I am the owner and president of JL's Tile Service, Inc. I formed my corporation in February of 2004. In the summer of 2004 I moved my corporate offices to a new address. I failed to inform the Division of Corporations of my new address.

Due to my move, I did not receive any copies of or any notices of my Annual Reports. Since I did not receive any of these items I did not file with the Division of Corporations for my corporation for the years 2005 and 2006. I recently visited my attorney to ask a question about my corporation. He looked up the state records and informed me that my corporation had been "Administratively Dissolved". I did not know what that meant. He then informed me that I was required to file annual reports with the Division of Corporations to keep my corporation in good standing.

I did not know this and as I did not receive any papers from the Division of Corporations due to my moving, I never filed. My attorney has prepared the enclosed Application for Reinstatement. By copy of this letter I am requesting a waiver of the Reinstatement Fee due to my never receiving any of the paperwork from the Division. My application contains my new mailing address. I have enclosed the annual report fees and corporate supplemental fees for the years 2005 and 2006. Based on my staying at the new address I will now be able to receive notices and will be fulfilling my annual obligations with the Division of Corporations in the future.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter. If you have any further questions in this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me

Very truly yours,
