Dear Sir/Ma'am:

I am sending this correspondence with my articles of incorporation to inform you that my intentions are to start another company. My old company "Raye Remodeling & Repair, Inc. has been dissolved by the state administration as I had taken a full time job with another employer for three years and did not keep up with the filings.

So I have closed the books on the old company and would like to start this new for two reasons.

One, the name beginning with B will put it at the front of the phone book rather than the back. And two, the name "Construction Co." will give a better representation of my credentials rather than looking like just a handy man.

If there is any questions or actions that need to be addressed you can reach me at the above address or call me. My home/office phone number is (904) 646-1930.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Ben Raye", followed by a long horizontal line extending to the right.
