Dear Loria:

I have done several documents to incorporate realtors and never put the specific nature of business on the articles of inc. I just spoke with one of your representatives who said this filing was rejected due to this matter.

I have redone the articles of inc. and have indicated the nature of business as real estate. Please use the original date that these were filed. I already have an EIN# and the "S" Acceptance letter. Will I need to do anything else? Should you need any additional information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Doreen Granie'
