ARTICLE X.

The business of the corporation shall be managed, controlled and conducted by a Board of Directors and by a President, Secretary and Treasurer. Any person may hold one or more offices, except that the President shall not also be the Secretary. The Directors shall be chosen annually after the first year of existence of the corporation by the stockholders, at the annual meeting of the stockholders.

The number of Directors and their terms of office and manner of election, as well as their duties, shall be prescribed by the By-Laws. The officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors.

A majority of the Directors present at any meeting, duly and regularly called, shall constitute a quorum, and a majority vote of Directors present shall control.

The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held at the time and place which shall be set forth in the By-Laws of the corporation.

ARTICLE XI.

The Board of Directors shall have full power and authority to fix the price for, and to fix limitations upon, the issuance of all stock certificates and for the sale of all stock.

All payments for stock shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America: provided, however, that any designated portion of stock shall be made payable in property, labor or services at a just valuation, to be fixed by the incorporators or by the Directors at a meeting called for such a purpose. Property, labor or services may also be purchased or paid for with capital stock at a just valuation of such property, labor or services, to be fixed by the Directors of the corporation at a meeting called for such purpose. All stock issued shall be fully paid and non-assessable. Stock shall be transferable only in the manner prescribed in the By-Laws of the corporation and every person becoming a stockholder by such transfer shall, in proportion to his stock, succeed to all the rights and liabilities of the prior holder. The By-Laws of the corporation shall include provisions governing the issuance of stock certificates to replace lost or destroyed certificates.

Immediately after the adjournment of the annual meeting of the stockholders, the Directors shall hold their annual meeting for the election of officers and such other business as may properly come before the meeting. Meetings of the stockholders and meetings of the Board of Directors of this corporation may be held within or without the State of Florida. This corporation may have such other places of business besides the principal place of business, either within or without the State of Florida, as may be deemed desirable.

The amount of the indebtedness or liability to which this corporation may at any time subject itself shall be unlimited.

This corporation shall adopt an appropriate seal, and shall adopt By-Laws for the government of its affairs, not inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation and the laws of the State of Florida, which may be amended or repealed as provided in said By-Laws.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the subscribers hereto have set their hands and seals this 30th day of January, 2004, for the purpose of forming this corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, and hereby make, subscribe, acknowledge and file in the Office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida these Articles of Incorporation and certify that the facts herein stated are true.
