I am responding to the attached letter that I received from you dated February 8, 2008. You stated that you received my annual report, but the report has not been filed because there is a $150.00 fee that must be paid. When I mailed my report in on January 31, 2008, I made a notation that I included with the report check #1190 in the amount of $150.00. I have noticed that the check has never cleared through my bank, so I have no idea what happened. I am enclosing check #1193 for $150.00, but I am not going to put a stop payment on check #1190 because of the $25.00 fee to do so. If you happen to somehow receive both payments, could you please disregard one of them? I would assume that you would not accept both payments if all I owed was $150.00.

I apologize for any confusion this may have caused. Thanks so much for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Emily Clayton
