RE: Re-Instatement Status

We have been advised that our entity relocation as of last year in the year 2004 to our present address, did not reach your office to notify our business of the penalties which are incurred should we not fall into compliance with the corporation codes. Your office has confirmed that the information that was sent to our business, was sent to the old business address, and in so doing, we missed the time frame window to come into compliance with the Division of Corporations' rules and regulations. We left from the old address in November of 2004.

As per your office instructions we are enclosing $150.00 for re-instatement fees pertaining to our company.

Thank You

Girard Pressley
