ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF ROBERTO L. MALDONADO M.D., P.A.

The undersigned subscriber to these Articles of Incorporation of ROBERTO L. MALDONADO M.D., P.A., a natural person competent to contract, who is licensed and legally authorized to practice the profession of medicine in the State of Florida, hereby forms a professional corporation in accordance with the Florida Professional Service Corporation Act, and hereby adopt the following articles of incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of the corporation is ROBERTO L. MALDONADO M.D., P.A.

ARTICLE II - DURATION

The period of the corporation's duration shall be perpetual or until dissolved on a vote of the shareholders as hereafter provided.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

The purpose of the corporation is to:

- a. To engage in the practice of medicine as a professional corporation and to operate or own a medical clinic or clinics for the purposes of providing medical care and treatment.
- b. To promote medical, surgical, and scientific research and knowledge; to furnish related laboratory and clinical services; and to own real and personal property, enter into contracts, and engage in any lawful business necessary for the rendering of such professional services.
- c. To do everything necessary, proper, or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the purposes set forth in these articles, and to do every other act incidental to the corporate purposes which is not forbidden by the laws of the State of Florida or by the provisions of these articles of incorporation.

The purposes of this corporation shall be carried out only through officers, employees, and agents, each of whom is duly licensed or otherwise legally qualified to render professional medical services in the State of Florida.

ARTICLE IV - CAPITAL STOCK

Number of Authorized Shares. The maximum number of shares of stock that this Corporation is authorized to have outstanding at any time is one hundred (100) shares of common stock, each having the par value of one ($1.00) dollar. Such shares shall be of a single class of common stock.

Voting Rights. Such shares of stock may be designated either voting or nonvoting shares before issuance by action of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that unless such designation is specifically made by the Board of Directors, said stock shall be deemed voting.

Consideration for Stock. Authorized capital stock may be paid for in cash, service or property at a just value to be fixed by the Board of Directors of this Corporation at any regular or special meeting.

Dividends. The holders of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be entitled to receive, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, dividends payable either in cash, property or shares of capital stock.

ARTICLE V - CAPITALIZATION

The amount of capital with which the corporation will begin to practice the profession of medicine is not less than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars.

ARTICLE VI - REGULATION OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

The initial Bylaws shall be adopted by the Board of Directors. The power to alter, amend, or repeal the Bylaws or to adopt new Bylaws shall be vested in the Board of Directors. The Bylaws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the Corporation not inconsistent with the Corporation Laws of the State of Florida or of these Articles of Incorporation.

Transactions with Directors. Any contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any firm, organization or corporation of which one or more of the Directors are members, employees, shareholders, directors, or officers, or in which they have an interest, shall be valid for all purposes, notwithstanding the presence of the interested Director or Directors at the Board of Directors meeting in which the contract or transaction is acted upon or considered, and notwithstanding his or their participation in the action, if the fact of such interest shall be disclosed or known to the Board of Directors and if the Board of Directors shall, nevertheless, authorize or ratify the contract or transaction and permit the interested Directors to be counted in determining whether a quorum is present and to vote on such authorization or ratification. This section shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or other transaction that would otherwise be valid under the common and statutory law applicable to it.

ARTICLE VII - CORPORATE POWERS

The corporation shall have all the rights and powers now or hereafter conferred on professional corporations by the laws of the State of Florida, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. To have and to exercise all the powers specified under the Florida Professional Corporation Act.
- b. To purchase, transfer, sell, convey, acquire, own, operate, exchange, lease, improve, develop, mortgage, manage and otherwise deal in interests in real and personal property of any nature or kind.

H040000354363

c. To carry out all or part of the purposes stated herein as principal, agent or otherwise, either alone or in association with any other persons firms, associations, or corporations, or, to such extent as a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida may or hereafter lawfully do, as a member of, or as the owner or holder of any stock of, or shares or securities or interests in, any general or limited partnership, association, corporation, trust, syndicate, or other firm or entity; and to a like extent in connection therewith, to make, enter into, and perform contracts or deeds with any person, firm, association or corporation or any government or subdivisions, agency or instrumentality thereof.

d. To make any guaranty respecting stocks, dividends, securities, indebtedness, interest, contracts or other obligations created by any domestic or foreign corporation, association, partnership, individual or other entity.

e. Each of the foregoing clauses of this section shall be construed as independent powers, and the matters expressed in each clause shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided, be limited by reference to, or interference from, the terms of any other clause. The enumeration of specific powers shall not be construed as limiting or restricting in any manner either the meaning of general terms used in any of these clauses, or the scope of the general powers of the Corporation created by them; nor shall the expression of one thing in any of these clauses be deemed to exclude another not expressed, although it be of a like nature.

The Corporation may conduct business and otherwise carry on its purposes and exercise its powers in any state, territory, district or possession of the United States, or in any foreign country, to the extent that these purposes and powers are not forbidden by law of the state, territory, district or possession of the United States, or by the foreign country; and it may limit the purpose or purposes that it proposes to carry out or the powers it proposes to exercise in any application to do business in any state, territory, district or possession of the United States or foreign country.

The Board of Directors, subject to any specific written limitation or restriction imposed by the Corporation Laws of the State of Florida or by these Articles of Incorporation, shall direct the carrying out of the purposes and exercise the powers of the Corporation without previous authorization or subsequent approval of the shareholders of the Corporation.
