To whom it may concern:

Until I received the notice from your office in the last of June, I had NEVER gotten any kind of correspond ice from your office. I had to go on line and find out what it is all about (still not sure). I applied there for the waiver and filled out the form and sent it in.

I do not see that I need to pay any late fee as I got no prior notice of this tax!!

The form is filled out as I talked to one of your people on the phone today. This letter asking for the waiver is from her advice.

I will resubmit this form.

Please advise.
