Attn: Michelle Milligan

Dear Michelle,

Thank you for speaking with me on the telephone regarding this corporate renewal.

My husband, Wayne Thompson had a 95% heart blockage and then within three months a "mini" stroke. We were not sure if he would ever be able to do this business again. We went quite some time without even a paycheck and he is our breadwinner.

We did not have money to file any Corp. reports and did not know if we would be able to continue at all, due to his health.

Online we would not lie and click the "did not receive notice" button, we are not that kind of people. We did receive the notice but we had no funds to take care of it with due to the health problem. However, we would also not wish to be penalized for being honest. We are requesting a waiver of the huge fees to renew. We are just a one man operation and barely make a living to begin with. We are not a large money making corporation.

Sincerely,
Linda & Wayne Thompson
