ARTICLE VIII

Before there can be a valid sale or transfer of any of the common shares of the corporation by any holder thereof, such holder shall first offer said shares to the corporation and then to the other holders of common shares in the following manner:

1. Such offering shareholder shall deliver a notice in writing by mail or otherwise to the Secretary of the corporation stating the price, terms and conditions of such proposed sale or transfer, the number of shares to be sold or transferred, and his intention to so sell or transfer such shares. Within 30 days thereafter, the corporation shall have the prior right to purchase such shares so offered at the price and on the terms that the corporation shall not at any time be permitted to purchase all of its outstanding voting shares. Should the corporation fail to purchase the shares at the price, terms and conditions stated in the notice; provided, however, the expiration of the 30 day period has expired, or prior thereto decline to purchase the shares, the Secretary of the corporation shall, within five (5) days thereafter, mail or deliver notice to each of the other common shareholders personally, or notice may be mailed to them at their last known address as such address may appear on the books of the corporation. Within 30 days after the mailing or delivering of the copies of the notice to the shareholders, any such shareholder or shareholders desiring to acquire any part or all of the shares referred to in the notice shall deliver by mail, or otherwise, to the Secretary of the corporation a written offer or offers expressed to be acceptable immediately to purchase a specified number of such shares at the price and on the terms stated in the notice. Each such offer shall be accompanied by the purchase price therefor with authorization to pay such price against delivery of the shares.

2. If the total number of shares specified in the offers to purchase exceeds the number of shares to be sold or transferred, each offering shareholder shall be entitled to purchase such proportion of such shares as the number of shares of the corporation which he holds bears to the total number of shares held by all shareholders desiring to purchase the shares.

3. If all of the shares to be sold or transferred are not disposed of under such apportionment, each shareholder desiring to purchase such shares in any number in excess of his proportionate share, as provided above, shall be entitled to purchase such proportion of those shares which remain thus indisposed of, as the total number of share which he holds bears to the total number of shares held by all of the shareholders desiring to purchase shares in excess of those to which they are entitled under such apportionment.

4. If within said 30 day period, the offer or offers to purchase aggregate less than the number of shares to be sold or transferred, the shareholder desiring to sell or transfer such shares shall not be obligated to accept any such offer or offers and may dispose of all the shares referred to in his notice to any person or persons whomsoever; provided, however, that he shall not sell or transfer such share at a lower price or on terms more favorable to the purchaser or transferee than those specified in his notice to the Secretary of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX

Each common shareholder of the corporation shall be entitled to full preemptive rights to acquire his proportional part of any unissued or treasury shares of the corporation, or securities of the corporation convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire such shares which may be issued at any time by the corporation.

ARTICLE X

It is the intent of this charter that the Directors may sell the capital stock of this corporation in accordance with the conditions of Sections 1242-1244, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We, the undersigned incorporators have hereunto set our hands and seals this the 15th day of March, 2004.
