This is to inform that I moved my home and my business March 18, 2006. For reasons unknown, my business mail was not forwarded as expected. I received your first notice June, 2006, informing me that my 2006 Annual Report was due May 1, 2006.

During the week of July 3, 2006, I received a second notice informing me that my account was now delinquent.

I have enclosed the Completed form along with the $158.75 payment. Please waive the late fee, as I received notification after the initial due date.

If a late fee is still required, please notify me at the above address.

I contacted your office by telephone last week to inform of the address change. Please assure that your records now reflect the correct mailing address for future business account notifications and documents.

Sincerely,

Deborah Curry Humbel

President
