The By-Laws of this Corporation shall be adopted by the Board of Directors and may be altered, amended, or rescinded by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IX

CAPITAL STOCK

The maximum number of shares of stock that this Corporation is authorized to issue and have outstanding at any one time is 1000 shares of common stock (having a par value of $1.00 per share). All shares are subject to the following restrictions:

A. Shareholders may dispose of their stock in this Corporation or encumber said stock only under the conditions expressed herein.

B. Any shareholders desiring to encumber or dispose of his stock must obtain the written consent of each of the other shareholders of this Corporation.

C. In the absence of the obtaining of such written consent, the shareholder desiring to encumber or dispose of the stock shall offer to sell all of his stock, first, to the Corporation in accordance with the terms of this agreement. He shall inform the Corporation of his intention to sell by registered mail to the Corporation, at its registered agent's office, and to each shareholder. Within sixty (60) days of the date of such receipt of said notice by the Corporation and by each of the other shareholders, the sale shall take place and the Corporation shall purchase the stock in accordance with the requirements hereinafter stated. The purchase price for each share of stock shall be the book value on the last day of the month preceding the date of the notice of intention to sell. The accountant for the Corporation shall determine the book value, and the Corporation shall pay said amount in cash. If the Corporation does not have sufficient surplus, then whatever surplus is available shall be utilized and the Corporation, through its shareholders, shall reduce the capital of the Corporation in order to provide sufficient surplus for the Corporation to purchase all of the offered stock. In the event the Corporation is unable under the law to so reduce its capital, then the shareholders shall offer to sell the stock to the remaining shareholders of the Corporation, to be purchased at the same time as defined above, on a pro rata basis. In the event of the death of any shareholders, his stock shall be purchased by the Corporation, in accordance with the above-referenced provisions. In the event the Corporation is unable to purchase any or all of the stock, the remaining shareholders of the Corporation shall have the right to purchase their pro rata amount of the decedent's stock at the above-determined price. The estate of the decedent shall be obligated to sell said stock to the Corporation or other shareholders.

D. The certificates of stock of this Corporation shall be temporarily surrendered to the Corporation for the purpose of adding the following endorsement on each share certificate: "This share certificate is subject to a restriction against sale or encumbrance contained in the Articles of Incorporation. Said Articles provide for restrictions upon transfer of the stock and a copy of the Articles of Incorporation may be obtained from the Secretary of the Corporation." After said stock is inscribed with said statement, then the stock certificates shall be returned to the shareholders immediately subsequent to the endorsement of the share certificates. This restriction is binding upon all purchasers of the stock of this Corporation, their heirs, successors, assigns, and legal representatives.
